Newsletter January 2019

Meridian

We had a great time singing Carols in The Meridian center in Havant on 22nd December and our group were soon joined by passers-by who enjoyed joining in. It was also good to see some of our new friends from the Gospel Choir workshop, some of whom also joined us at The Ship on Christmas Eve. Altogether we raised about £140 towards our funds. Grateful thanks to all concerned, especially the musicians!

FILM SHOW

Come to see this magnificent film at:

St John's Church Hall, Rowlands Castle, PO9 6DF, followed by tea & cakes/biscuits!
Thursday 10th January 2019 at 2.15pm, Tickets £7pp can be purchased on the door.

Based on a bestselling book, this is a thought provoking film. An invitation to meet with God at the scene of a personal tragedy, Mack asks all the questions you or I would ask, given the opportunity. Mack is a champion for us all, his great sadness and anger allow him to put into words what we sometimes feel, but rarely say.

All proceeds to Havant Passion Play Limited.

Voices for Easter

I was lucky enough to see this show, last September when I attended the Passion Trust Conference in Hornchurch. I was so impressed with it that I straight away invited Kevin Walsh to bring it to Havant, which he was delighted to do! Kevin is a professional actor who trained at R.A.D.A. He wrote, and performs, this wonderful one-man show giving an account of what happened at, and after, the crucifixion, from the viewpoint of the people who were there. Do put the date in your diary, it is an opportunity not to be missed.

Performances start at 4pm and 7.30pm

at St Michael's Church Hall, Leigh Park, PO9 5BD

Advance Tickets on sale now:- £7 adults; Children 10-16- £5

Tickets purchased on the door £10 each
