

BREAKING NEWS!

It was unanimously agreed at the recent HPP Board meeting that the play will go ahead in August 2017.

Havant Park has been booked for ages, but now the real hard work begins!

We still need to raise funds of about £4000, although some of that should come from fundraising ventures we have already got organised. We also need far more people, of all ages, to get involved. At a recent meeting with James Burke-Dunsford, our writer, director and principal actor, he expressed a wish for more young people to be involved and for people to start to 'learn the ropes' so that in future Havant can write, direct and 'own' its own Plays without having to call in the expertise of professionals like himself. Don't worry we are not there yet, this time we will still be under the steady, guiding hand of James, with his wealth of experience, knowledge and humour.

If you can help us, in any way, please go on our website (address at the bottom of the page) and register your interest and the skills you can bring. We need tea makers, very important! Back stage crew, stewards, actors, caterers, costume makers, props, assistant stage manager, assistant director, electricians, sound people, stage builders. The more we can provide for ourselves the less money we will need to raise.

HPP Flower Festival

Due to circumstances beyond our control we will only be able to run our festival weekend over two days instead of the three we had originally anticipated. In view of this we have changed it's title to HPP Festival Weekend! It will be on Saturday 10th and Sunday 11th June, at Emsworth Methodist Church. There will still be a full programme of events, including a Variety Show on Saturday evening and a Joint service of Praise on Sunday evening. We are looking for people to make up a HPP choir to sing for us, David Wiseman, our choirmaster, is ready and waiting for volunteers! If you are interested in joining the HPP choir please contact Jacky Chong at 01243 371074 or jackychong@btinternet.com for further details.

This looks to be an interesting and fun packed weekend, with time to reflect and pray together as well.

We look forward to seeing you there!
